

TRIMONT NAMED A 2019 TOP WORKPLACE BY THE ATLANTA JOURNAL-CONSTITUTION

For the second year in a row, employees rate Trimont Real Estate Advisors as one of the top 50 midsize companies in Atlanta

ATLANTA (March 4, 2019) - For the second consecutive year, Trimont Real Estate Advisors has been named one of the 2019 Top Workplaces by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through an anonymous third-party survey administered by research partner Energage LLC, which measures several aspects of workplace culture, including alignment, execution and connection.

Trimont was listed as one of the top 50 companies to work for in the midsize category, and one of only eight in the commercial real estate space for the second year in a row.

“We are incredibly honored to be awarded as a Top Workplace in Atlanta. This is a testament to our team’s commitment and efforts to create a collaborative culture that drives employee engagement, and encompasses our core values of mastery, individuality and serving,” said Brian Ward, CEO of Trimont.

More than 4,300 companies were nominated or asked to participate in the 2019 Top Workplaces awards by The Atlanta-Journal Constitution. “Top Workplaces is more than just recognition,” said Doug Claffey, CEO of Energage. “Our research shows organizations that earn the award attract better talent, experience lower turnover and are better equipped to deliver bottom-line results. Their leaders prioritize and carefully craft a healthy workplace culture that supports employee engagement.”

“We continue to invest in our people and their professional development by providing our employees with the resources, direction and benefits they need to achieve their maximum potential,” said Don Sather, chief human resources officer of Trimont. “We are very proud of our employees on receiving this distinction.”
